

August 6, 2008

Prophetic Word given by Robert McKinney

Oh America, America, there has been a shifting upon you. There has been a change of guards upon you, and woe unto you who neglect My Gospel. Woe unto you who refuse to hear My Voice and My Spirit's beckoning. Woe unto you, America, for you have strayed and you have come far apart from Me.

So I say unto you a new guard has taken over, and My people shall dwell in the midst of their enemy's camp and they shall dwell, and they shall dwell in peace and safety as those who hear and harken unto My voice, but woe unto you who want filth, woe unto you who desire to follow the ways of the world and the ways of the wicked ones instead of Me. For I say unto you, the time has come. A new world order has begun. It has begun and I say unto you unless you repent, terrible pains are coming upon you; for the ways of the transgressor is hard; you will see what it is not to have My mercy as you have chosen your path.

My people will flourish; the very ones you want to destroy. But they will not be destroyed, for they are of My Kingdom, and they and It are everlasting.